What information do we collect?

We collect anonymous tracking information for analytics purposes only. Like many websites, we use “cookies” to gather information about visitors and visits to our websites. Please refer to the “Do we use ‘cookies’?” section below for information about cookies and how we use them.

Do we use “cookies”?

Yes. Cookies are small files that a site or its service provider transfers to your computer’s hard drive through your Web browser (if you allow) that enables the site’s or service provider’s systems to recognize your browser and capture and remember certain information. We also use cookies to help us compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interaction so that we can offer better site experiences and tools in the future. We may contract with third-party service providers to assist us in better understanding our site visitors. These service providers are not permitted to use the information collected on our behalf except to help us conduct and improve our business.

Do we disclose the information we collect to outside parties?

Non-personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, but we do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties.
